

HAMILTON & MOSSER.

S. K. HAMILTON,
J. K. MOSSER.DECATUR, ILL. NO. 101
Wednesday Evening, July 18.

A disastrous fire broke out in Mont-ing Brook Colliery, near Scranton, Pa., yesterday morning.

There are said to be 300 convicts in the Ohio penitentiary unemployed, which leaves a large balance of expense unbalanced by receipts.

The well known Honore block, on Dearborn street, Chicago, was sold, a day or two ago, at master in chancery's sale, for $300,000.

The dues for an experimental gold coin, worth $50, are now nearly completed, and are said to be of exquisite workmanship, rendering counterfeiting a matter of the greatest difficulty.

One Dr. Charles F. Winslow, who died a few days ago at Salt Lake City, left a will directing that within forty eight hours after his death his heart should be removed, embalmed and buried in the grave of his mother and father at Nantucket, Mass., while his body should be cremated, and the ashes buried with his wife in Mount Auburn Cemetery, Boston. Shortly before his death the deceased executed a promise from his attending physician and friend that his wishes in this regard should be faithfully executed.

The Government pays the Mattoon

Sullivan and Decatur railroad company about seventeen hundred dollars per year for carrying the mails from Mattoon to Hervey City. Each post office along the route pays a portion of the amount every three months according to the business done at each office, though the sum paid during the year falls short of the seventeen hundred dollars. Last Saturday was a quarterly pay day, and the railroad collected from the several post offices along the route as follows: (Chas. Station, $7.50;

Farlow, $1.50; Sullivan, $115.06;

Dunn, $1.72; B. Chaney, $55; Dalton, $70, total, $256.75. It will be seen that the post offices fall short about one hundred and sixty eight dollars on the quarterly settlement with the railroad company. By noticing the amounts paid by the several offices, the business can be computed. Sullivan Progress.

AN INTERESTING WAR REMINIS-

CENCE

Boston Advertiser

At the battle of Antietam and South Mountain a colonel was wounded, his arm fearfully shattered, and he was brought from the field by his brothers and a private soldier. They carried him across the country a long and toilsome distance, every step of which was torture to the sufferer, to the house of a Maryland Union farmer. There came the ubiquitous Yankee surgeon with his glittering knives and cruel saws, and made hasty preparations to ampu-tate the maimed member. The farmer vehemently protested, declaring that the man would die if the arm was cut off. The surgeon insisted that the patient would die if the arm was not taken off, and the colonel's brothers counseled with the surgeon. But the determined old farmer dispatched his son on his fleetest horse across the fields to the other side of the mountain after his friend and neighbor, a country physician, and a rank rebel. When the rustic Kouklupus arrived there ensued a long contention with the Yankee hewer of bones over the sufferer, and, after some weeks of careful nursing, the colonel galloped off to join his regiment, a comparatively sound man. He subsequently became governor of Ohio, and now fills the presidential chair.

MARRIED ON AN ORDER.

Gov. Greenwell, of Michigan, in his Fourth of July oration, spoke as follows of his experience at Adrian in his early days:

She Talks About Civil Service Reform, and is Particularly Anxious About Stillwell.

SIR: On May 17 we were aroused with a jubilation, and it really seemed as if the morning light was breaking. We were glad to dismiss for awhile from our jaded souls the perplexities of civil service reform, and to receive into devout and believing minds the good tidings, "The solid South is breaking up in North Carolina."

As a means to this end the President will be asked to make some changes in the offices in the western portion of the state.

Oh—h—h are you there, my para-graphist? Are those the phosphorescent eyes given glowing under the moon? Are we led slowly and painfully along the cracks and crevices of fracturing Southern solidarity only to be plunged into a hornet's nest of enraged office seekers and office-holders at the end of our winding way? Is not this a Reform Administration? Are not politics to be ignored in the distribution of office, and only fitness considered? Will Messieurs Reformers have the goodness to define that article of the civil service reform creed which involves the use of Federal patronage in breaking up the democratic party? Is it the rupture of the democratic party or the purification of the civil service which prompted the action whose record reads "The Cabinet has decided to appoint Mrs. Thompson Postmistress at Louisville?" With Europe astir, our dockyards silent, an ominous blackness gathering on the prairies, it is almost grotesque to see the great minds of the cabinet gathering in solemn conclave to decide whether Mrs. Thompson or Mr. Johnson shall have a Kentucky post office. It is a sine qua non, and undoubtedly Postmaster General Key cannot, dare not, will not, put any man or woman behind a post office window who is not able or willing to walk there, or even ride in an omnibus, in all sorts of weather, but though at the risk of permitting his radiant integrity, his Brutus-like impartiality to show a little off color, could not Mr. Key have consulted a Kentucky representative, or the Louisville people, and so leave Mr.

Byrns free to finish that Chiselm letter that we are all waiting to be thrilled by, and that is especially going to annihilate the DeKalb county murderers and revolutionize Mississippi politics?

BUT EVEN THIS DOES NOT ACCOUNT

FOR STILLWELL.

for Stillwell, the mysterious, who will not come down, and cannot up. It is time he should be laid as a ghost, or come forth as a Lazarus.

Who is it that is keeping this hideous story aloft with anything but the persuasiveness of the saints? Stillwell has had opportunities for observation offered to him but he refuses to embrace them.

He was long ago relegated to the realm of inorganic existence, but he will not stay there. He was assumed to be a more Will o' the wisp pretending to be a lamp unto our feet and a light unto our path to purity and non-Nepotism, but really luring us into bogs of im-becility. And now from time to time there arise men who trouble Israel by advertising that he is no phantom of the reform imagination conjured up to lure to brighter worlds and lead the way, but a conscious, adroit, living and breathing favorite cousin a husband. He sparkled, was exalted, and went to—Chicago.

He did apply for the marshaling of his honor, his disappointed office seekers, the rancorous and malignant partisans, and was publicly denied on account of relationship, while a private arrangement was made by which Mr.

Hildrup, of Belvidere, should be appointed marshal and Mr. Stillwell first deputy, and nobody be the wiser. Every one and every word of these stories is undoubtedly false, but they have all appeared in the newspapers—the newspapers, which are the people's sole authority for the virtues of the present and the vices of the past administration—and though we speak with the tongue of men and angels and have not omniscience, we cannot at arm's length, detect the chaff from the wheat. Now let us have it out once for all with the office holder and partisan. Let the ghost be laid or Lazarus come forth.

Let the man who first evoked a Stillwell from the vasty deep, rise now and speak or else hereafter forever hold his peace. Is there a deputy marshal in Northern Illinois, and is his name Stillwell, and is it the same Stillwell whose rejection for office was bruited about as the proof of "No Nepotism in the Hayes administration?"

A cruel slander is creeping through the country until this mot by an unmistakable "No!" Tell us, O whitewashed but waggish reformers, is Stillwell a man and a brother, or is he a Mrs. Jar-ley's wax-work? Is he a lay figure, clothed with civil service reform as with a garment, or is he an unoffending and grievously entreated human being and deputy marshal? Is he a Weekford Squares, kept on hand to illustrate the fair, fat workings of the system at Dottheboys Hall, or is he a more hypothesis projected by the reformers to show what the president would do if he had a brother who liked obscure?

Gold has shown a decided advance during the past few days—doubtless in consequence of the increased demand for the new 4 per cent. government loan.

Yesterday it reached 105½.

STANFORD, Yr., July 17.—Examinations show that Rev. A. J. Larrison is a defaulter to several estates for which he has acted as trustee, executor, etc. He will be prosecuted.

Gail Hamilton's Letter to N.Y. Tribune.

What very queer reading there is for us reformers, on June 28 and 29, about the new commissioner of agriculture.

"General Le Duc has been engaged to some extent in railroad operations, and was concerned in the construction company connected with the Northern Pacific railroad enterprise," where, of course, the bold yeoman acquired his farm "finances" for his position, railroad being in the direct line of agricultural promotion. Business men conducting a farm on business principles would naturally apply to a railroad constructionist for farm superintendence.

"General LeDuc is a graduate of Kenyon college, Ohio, the president's alma mater." "General LeDuc has been in Washington most of his time since the 4th of March, as an applicant for office." "General LeDuc came here just before the 4th of March in company," it is said, with the president, whom he joined in Columbus." "His commination does not seem to have been brought about by political influence."

"General LeDuc was not without political influence, as was supposed, as was supposed when his appointment was announced. He was recommended by the entire Minnesota delegation in congress." Current gossip concerning the appointment attributes it chiefly to the influence of Private Secretary Rogers, who, when an invalid seeking health in Minnesota, became connected with General LeDuc in some business transactions."

Poor old civil service reform! If any one had been spared it before, General LeDuc has certainly administered the missing dig. Tossed about from the president's alma mater to the Pacific railroad, trotting along after Mr. Hayes to Washington, and waiting patiently until Mr. LeDuc set upon by the Minnesota delegation, and kicked and cuffed by Private Secretary Rogers, civil service reform may well howl with Jool the son of Jehu!

"That which the palmerworm hath left, hath the locust eaten; and that which the locust hath left, hath the can-ker worm eaten; and that which the

pillar eaten."

FINANCES OF 1877 VS. 1865.

Letter of Henry C. Carey to the President.

Mr. Lincoln told us, Mr. President, that our government was "of the people, by the people, and for the people," and so it would have continued to be but for the fact that his untimely death set his finance minister, Mr. Hugh McCulloch, free at once to change his opinions, reversing the Lincoln policy and issuing in the autumn of 1865 a decree of confiscation applicable to all debtors, but largely profitable to all creditors, a proceeding for which he should certainly have been impeached.

ANNOUNCEMENT.
We are authorized to announce to the voters of the Fourth Judicial Circuit, composed of the counties of Vermilion, Edgar, Clark, Cole, Champaign, DeKalb, Madison and Macon, that the Hon. Wm. E. Noyes, of Decatur, is a candidate for election to the office of Judge of the Circuit Court in said circuit, at the election to be held on the first Monday in August next.

CITY DEPARTMENT.

This is good weather to bring out a big crop of mosquitoes and bad bugs. The acreage of potatoes in this county is not large, but the yield per acre is good and the quality excellent. A slight sprinkling of rain laid the dust this morning. While the trade is quiet as compared with some seasons of the year, it is fully up to the average of former years at this season. Choice perambles and toilet articles always on hand at Armstrong's. Birkett & Hurland make cigars that please the people, and always keep the best of tobacco. And still the place to buy your meat and vegetables is at Young's market, on Prairie street. Fresh blackberries at Newell & Hunsicker's. Caldwell Brothers' back meets all trials, and calls in any part of the city. For Taylor's back leave orders at Armstrong's. All calls responded to with promptness. Don't fail to examine H. Post's extensive assortment of Jewels, Clocks and Watches, Silver and Plated Ware. Tramps are again getting plenty, and people should be cautious about leaving windows unfastened these hot nights. Several familiar faces are missed from Decatur society just now, and more will be ere the vacation season is over. Sundry persons, mischievously inclined, go about town at night cutting fences, scattering trees and doing such other devilment as their villainous dispositions incline them to. "Stand not upon the order of your going, but go at once" to Niedermeyer's and get one of his choice sugar-coated lams. The people are warned against bogus half dollars, which are said to be in circulation. We have seen none of the bogus and very few of the genuine recently. We notice nearly all of our exchanges are republishing an article from the New York Graphic on "How to Avoid Drunkenness." The gist of the article is "Eat more—eat nutritious food." We think we know a better way to avoid drunkenness. It is "Quit drinking."

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. J. A. Close has gone on a visiting trip to Columbia, Boone county, Missouri, where she will sojourn for some weeks. Capt. Mackley is attending to the "going, going, gone" department of Col. Koefe's auction store, on Merchant street. Mrs. R. Liddle left on the 10.45 train last night for Buffalo, N. Y., whither she was summoned by the serious illness of her mother, who is a very old lady. Hon. T. J. Abel left for Danville last night, at which place he will join the Montreal excursion, which leaves tonight. Mr. James Carney, who was injured some days ago by falling from a tree, is now improving, with a good prospect of being able to be on the streets again in a week or two. Will Close is oblivious to everything on this terrestrial ball except a bouncing boy which came to his house last night. Weight, 11 pounds. "Cheap Charley" went along with the rest of the folks on that Chicago trip. He will come back with lots of new goods. Capt. T. J. Abel, who went east last night, will visit New York and Boston during his absence, for the purpose of buying goods, and will purchase the finest lot of carpet and other goods in his line ever brought to Decatur. Hon. J. H. Moore went to Springfield to day at noon to meet the commission for locating the Eastern Insane Asylum and present to them the propositions of Decatur as to what the city will do for the Institution, provided it is located here.

MARRIED.

The Ayer excursion for the north passed through here at 10.45 last night, and comprised something like 130 persons, about 90 of whom joined the party here. Among the latter we noticed Jno. N. Fuller, Esq., E. McNabb, A. B. Sloan and wife, J. W. Haworth, Miss Lena Henkle, L. L. Haworth and family, Frank Caldwell, Mrs. G. W. Thompson and sister, of Warrensburg, Mrs. Thos. Hays, Mrs. E. J. Moeller and several others whose names do not occur to us just now. The most of the party only got as far as Chicago, though a few will go to different points in Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota. Mrs. Hays and Mrs. Moeller expect to visit Milwaukee and Madison. At the residence of the bride's father, on Mason street, by Judge S. F. Green, on the evening of Tuesday, July 17th, Mr. Albert J. Pohl and Miss Ruth DAVENPORT, all of this city. The "Baceme" Napkin-holder is one of the nobby inventions of the age, and is coming into general use. Alex. F. Jannison sells them at his Jewelry Store, next door east of Millikin & Co.'s Bank. Price only 25 cents. Call and get one. July 18-dwt. Sunday School Excursion.—On Friday afternoon next the St. James Sunday School will meet at their chapel at the ringing of the bell at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. From there they will march to the Priest House, where at 5 o'clock they will board the street cars for a trip to the depot, and return. Let all the scholars be on hand in time. A Long Wagon Ride.—This morning a man passed through town on his way to Pennsylvania to visit friends who had come all the way from Wichita, Kansas, with his team and wagon. He seems to take it leisurely, and enjoys his trip as he goes along. Dry Goods and Millinery will be closed out at Great Bargains. In order to make arrangements for Fall Trade, at THOS. A. GERMANN'S, July 14-dwt.

STREET CAR EXCURSION.

Yesterday afternoon the Universalist Sunday School enjoyed a free ride on the street cars, and to day the Stapp's Chapel School is to enjoy the same luxury. The school will board the cars at the Franklin street crossing, go to the depot, from there to the Priest House, and from the last named place return to the place of starting. On to-morrow we understand that the Christian Church School is to make the trip, boarding the cars at the church on North Main street. Of course all the young people who are treated to a free ride by the proprietor of the street cars, will thank him from their inmost hearts, and will give him the greatest happiness, and street car enterprise the greatest possible success. We suppose that the other schools will take their turn in due time.

Relationship of Brain and Stomach.

Is a close one. They are connected by that wondrous elastic link, the sympathetic nerve, which communicates the abnormal sensations of the organ of digestion to that of thought. Now, if digestion is disordered, the brain, being the great local part of the nervous system, all the nerves are in some degree affected. The main cause of nervous trouble is impaired digestion, and that is usually produced by weakness of the stomach. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters rectifies this, and overcomes nervous debility by infusing increased energy into the operation of the organs of nutrition. Through the agency of this beneficent tonic, not only are the nerves vitalized, but the entire organism acquires vigor and regularity. July 16-dwt.

Think for Yourself.

Thousands lead miserable lives, suffering from dyspepsia, a disordered stomach and liver, producing biliousness, heart burn, costiveness, weakness, irregular appetite, low spirits, raising bile after eating, and often ending in fatal attacks of fever. They know they are sick, yet get little sympathy. The unfailing remedy, which is really restoring thousands to health, is Dr. Cass's Radical Cure. Sold by A. J. Stoner, Decatur, Ill. A 25c bottle will convince you of its merits. Don't delay another hour after reading this, but go and get a bottle, and your relief is as certain as you live. Will you do it or will you continue to suffer? Think for yourself. Prof. Parker's Pleasant Worm Syrup is perfectly safe and extremely palatable. No physic required. Costs 25 cents. Try it.
